ABOUT ME

I am Shaikh Abdul Moiz, a fresh front-end developer. I can build cool websites using Next.js and also using React.js and integrate typescript into these tools. It's my passion to not only develop websites for clients but also create a good user experience for clients. It's my mission to not compromise in User Interface and User Experience. I have developed some websites like E-commerce using Next.js which you can check in my Portfolio.
